Rt. Wor. Fred Bateman, Grand Master, Ontario East, Honoured

On Friday evening, July 27th, the members of Springbrook L.O.L. No.
442 and members of Stirling Lodge No.
110 with their ladies held a special meeting in Springbrook Orange Hall to honor Brother Fred Bateman who was recently elected Grand Master of the Orange Grand Lodge of Ontario East.

This was a distinct honor to both lodges, as Brother Bateman has been associated with both lodges for several years.

On July 6th, 1922, Fred was initiated into the Orange Order at Springbrook, and at that time Brother Dave Cotton conducted the initiation ceremony.

Fred's father and five brothers, all members of Springbrook, were present for this initiation ceremony.

Several years ago Brother Bateman moved from Rawdon Township to Stirling, where he has conducted a ladies' wear store, and soon after taking up residence in town, he took out a dual membership in Stirling L.O.L. No. 110.

His father, the late John Bateman and one brother, Frank, are deceased.

Brother Fred Bateman has been an ardent and enthusiastic member of both lodges. He rarely misses a meeting and a living example of Orangism.

He attends St. Paul's United Church, and for years has had a total of 52
church services in the year to his credit and often has more than that. He is a firm believer in supporting all good Protestant ideas and his promotion to this signal honor of Grand Master of Ontario East is well merited.

Bro. Murney Bateman, Master of Springbrook Lodge and Bro. Sid Demorest, Master of Stirling Lodge, arranged this special meeting and a large number were in attendance from the two lodges as well as several visitors.

The programme was presided over by Bro. Wilfred Spencer, who spoke briefly. A sing-song followed with Mrs. John McKeown as pianist. Brother
Bill Reynolds sang "The Lord's Prayer," as this prayer is useful at meetings and later he contributed a humorous solo.

Instrumental numbers, piano and violin were rendered by Miss Eileen Cooke and Mr. Phil Beaudrie.

Brother Phil Carr delighted with three readings of interest.

Mr. X. P. Mayhew contributed a couple of solos with guitar accompaniment.

Special Address
Brother William Cottrell, Marmora, gave a special address on the theme,

DRIVER DOZES HITS PARKED CAR

Dozing behind the wheel of a car proved costly to Morris Easton, of Frankford, when he collided with K.
McGee's car which was parked in front of R. B. Bell's house, Front St., about 2.45 Sunday afternoon. The Easton car was proceeding eastward and the force of the impact drove the McGee car a distance of twenty-one feet. Damage to both cars was estimated at three hundred dollars.

Miss Shirley Patrick, of Frankford, who was in the Easton car, suffered several cuts on her face and was treated by Dr. McMullen, of Frankford.
John Smith, of town, also a passenger, escaped injury.

Chief S. Eggleton investigated the accident and charges have been laid against Easton, the driver of the car.

Rev. R. Spencer Rotary Speaker

Rev. R. Spencer, Minister of St.
Luke's United Church, Montreal, was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of Stirling Rotary Club on Tuesday night. Introduced by Rotarian Harold J. Wells, Rev. Spencer delivered a very thought-provoking address in which he emphasized three main points, "think without confusion," "love thy neighbour," and "live in the fear of God." Rotarian H. C.
Bird voted the thanks of the Club to the speaker.

man" and in his various remarks, he pointed with pride to the honored guest who had filled the various obligations of the order so nobly during the past 29 years.

George Thompson, Springbrook, ex-
Warden of the County; Bill Barlow,
Bonarlaw, clerk of Rawdon Township;
Harry Morrow, Deputy Reeve, Sidney Township; William Anderson and Phil Carr, of Stirling Lodge and Dave
Cotton, past master of Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Bateman were given seats of honor on the platform after which the address of appreciation was read by Rev. H. E. Beare, Deputy Grand Chaplain, on behalf of the two lodges.

Brother Murney Bateman presented
Mrs. Fred Bateman with a dozen red roses and Brother Sid Demorest presented Brother Bateman with a well-filled purse.

Mr. and Mrs. Bateman both graciously replied to this special honor bestowed upon them and thanked one and all
for their great kindness.

The rendition of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," and the National An-significance to members of the order.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall and a social hour of fellowship enjoyed.

The third set were farm scenes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bush with a few scenic pictures snapped from various bedroom windows; also views of the beautiful gardens and flowers at "Hillsholme." It is understood Miss Bly has some other sets of flowers and scenery which it may be possible for institute members to view at some future date.

NELSON — SANDERCOCK

Before a lovely background of white gladioli in tall standards interspersed with ferns and white cathedral candles, a marriage of wide interest was solemnized in Bridge Street United Church on Saturday, August 4th at 2.00 p.m. when Phyllis Eleanor Sandercock, of Belleville, daughter of Mr. William Elmer Sandercock, M.L.A., and Mrs. Sandercock, became the bride of Robert Earle Nelson, of Campbellford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson. The Rev. Duncan McTavish, minister of the church, officiated.

Mr. S. Alec Gordon, church organist, rendered the wedding music, and Miss Marion Wallace, soloist, sang before the ceremony, "O Perfect Love," and "Because," during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a charming bridal gown of imported exquisite French lace and satin, fashioned with form-fitting bodice of lace over satin buttoned down the back, and sheath-like sleeves ending in lily-points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt of satin, featuring a neck-to-hem lace panel at front and back, softly gathered at the waist, fell gracefully into a cathedral train, appliqued with Chantilly lace. Her full length veil of French tulle illusion, embroidered on the edges with matching lace, was caught by a halo headress encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a cascade hand-bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis and adiantum fern and wore a two-strand necklace of pearls, the gift of her bridegroom. Mrs. Reg. Edwards, of Toronto, was

Items of Interest St. Paul's-Carmel

(By Rev. A. E. Baker, U.E.)

Thanks to the vision and interest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hanna, St. Paul's Church will be furnished with a beautiful Endowment Fund Directory. This hand wrought work of solid oak will be suitably inscribed. It will make provision for over one hundred names. These will be the donors of gifts of fifty dollars or more to endow the work of St. Paul's Church in perpetuity. The principal will never be spent. The interest will be paid for the work of the church. The Trustee Board has decided to deposit in this fund the bequest of the late Thomas Donohoe. Substantial gifts have also been made by Mr. and Mrs. Hanna.

It is expected that many will covet the opportunity to honour the memory of a loved one, express special thanks or pay tribute to a mother or dear one by making gifts to include their names in this historic directory.

A meeting of the Trustee Board of St. Paul's will be held on Monday, August 20th, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Percy Utman and Mrs. Roy Duffin very graciously cared for the flowers last Sunday which were donated by Mrs. C. Tucker and Mrs. J. H. Beatty.

Thanks to unknown friend who sends me the "Sword of the Lord"; also to the donor of generous gift of asparagus left some weeks ago at the Parsonage rear side door.

Mrs. Everett Grills is to be thanked for her fine picture of the Carmel Confirmation Class—seven boys and one girl.

Plan to have a family group picture in the St. Paul's Centenary Booklet. It is hoped to advise the cost of half-tones soon. In order to overcome any criticism which might arise from the omission of any family the committee will consider a recommendation that one half of the cost of half-tones be paid for by those who desire their family, especially pioneer ancestors included, the balance of the cost to be borne by the Centennial Committee. Under this plan only those will be left out who fail to provide one half the cost.

Mrs. Mae (J. H.) Beatty has given us two volumes of the "Pioneer Life On The Bay of Quinte." We expect to offer these in due course to the Stirling Library Board for its local history section.

Help Bridge The Gap

It is a matter of record that Methodism began in England in 1739 and in New York in 1765. Philip Embury preached at the opening of the first Methodist Chapel in New York (then a British Colony) October 30th, 1768. His text was Hosea 10-12. The Chapel was 60' x 42'.

Methodism began in Canada by a local preacher named Tuffey in 1780. He was a Commissary of the 44th Regt. Quebec. He was followed by Major George Neal of the Cavalry Regt. He crossed at Queenston Oct. 7th, 1786. Thus Methodism in Canada was born of "two soldiers of the King who became soldiers of the Lord."

In 1788 Exhorter Lyons began teaching school at Adolphustown. Apart from this work he visited the homes of his people with prayers and exhortations. James McCarty, an Irishman, was a free lance Methodist who was described as Methodism's first Martyr in Canada.

Charles Warner, first Methodist Class Leader in Canada, was born in the Albany district in 1754. He joined the British in 1777 and came to Canada the same year.

Methodism began in the Bay of Quinte area under one-armed Wm. Losee, who preached in the Hay Bay district where he came to visit friends in 1790. He returned to organize the work in 1791, and erected two Chapels the next year, one at Hay Bay and the other at Ernestown. He organized three classes, the third of which was in the home of Samuel Detlor, 3 miles from Napanea.

Among the twenty two subscribers to the building of the Hay Bay Church, was one Wm. Ketcheson, who gave £3-0-0. The said William was born at Haden, Yorkshire, England, from whence he sailed to America in June 1773. Born in 1759 he was a mere lad of 15 when he landed with his uncle Thomas and sister Nancy at Norfolk, Virginia. In 1776 when the Americans declared their independence William joined the British Army and was severely wounded in action. After service in the southern states and the evacuation of New York he went to Nova Scotia from whence in 1786 he came with a company of United Empire Loyalists to join with others in planting the Union Jack at Hay Bay. In 1800 William Ketcheson and family moved to Sidney Township, 5th Concession where he was granted 600 acres of land in recognition of his services. (At a later date we will give more details of this interesting family of which Col. Wm. Ketcheson, a grandson, with whom we had a recent delightful interview at 90 is the oldest surviving member.)

Since Wm. Ketcheson was a subscriber to the first Methodist Church at Hay Bay and a staunch Methodist it is but natural that settlements left the waterfront that the Methodist saddle-bag preachers would follow them. It is a reasonable deduction that Wm. Losee doubtless visited his old friend and supporter and that the first Methodist services in Sidney were held near the dawn of the Nineteenth Century in the Ketcheson home. With this as the springboard and knowing that the Belleville Circuit was named in 1817 embracing centres in Sidney and Thurlow it is reasonable to assume that the pioneer preachers followed the settlers as they moved north.

Missionary Society record collections in Sidney and Rawdon in 1838. From William Ketcheson's house as a starting point, whereto in the present Stirling area were meetings first held before Weese's School House was used in 1838 at the corner of the Township Line and the Old Marmora Road? Can you bridge this gap between 1800 and 1838?

Early Teachers

James Potter taught school in Belleville in 1807 where he succeeded a teacher named Leslie who was engaged at Myer's Creek (Belleville) in 1805.

It was the practise in Hastings County about 1845 for teachers to be examined by the Warden. It is noted that Warden William Hutton asked the following question of one W. R. Bigg, who sought employment as a teacher. What part of speech is each of the nine "thats" in the following: "The lady said in speaking of the word that, that that, that that gentleman parsed was not that that that she requested him to analyze."

September's Five Sundays

St. Paul's - Carmel will open the Fall work with many interesting services. On September 2nd Rev. J. A. Whitehorn, of Seymour, is expected to be with us. September 9th will be our regular Quarter Day service with the Reception of new members and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Our Senior Choir are invited in the evening to sing at the Rylstone Anniversary, September 9th. On September 16th, we will observe the Festival of Harvest-Home with Rev. Wm. Fletcher, of Wooler as our guest preacher. Plan some part in this great service of Thanksgiving with at least a gift from the orchard, field, garden, hive, or fold. September 23rd the Ontario Temperance Federation's work will be presented and on September 30th we shall all share in the great anniversary observance at Carmel, when Dr. Howard, of Albert College and the Albert College Choir, will be at Carmel.

In accordance with an ambitious programme of improvement the Carmel congregation has completed the first part of its 1950 programme by the erection of a new ceiling in the church. The second step will be the interior decorating. This work is to be completed in time for the 76th Anniversary Observance. Indeed an effort will be made to have it ready for Harvest-Home Sunday, September 16th.

Church Flowers

During the month of July Church flowers were arranged at St. Paul's by Mrs. Wm. Cornett. In her absence on Civic Sunday Mrs. R. B. Duffin aptly cared for this ministry of love. To all who have given flowers a gracious thank you. Many-hued gladioli provided by Mrs. Claude Tucker and seasonable garden flowers and the pulpit "peace" rose provided by Mrs. J. H. Beatty. The names of some donors are not yet reported.

The old pump has been lifted from the "Bethlehem well" at St. Paul's Church. A cement cap has been placed over the well. For many long years this well served the community, Church and High School. When this well was dug and who was its digger is one of the many unanswered questions that confront a historian. Perhaps some News-Argus reader can throw some light on this matter?

In Memoriam

SPRY — In loving memory of my dear husband, Ellis Spry, who passed away August 9th, 1949.

There is a wife that misses you sadly,
And finds the time long since you went,
And I think of you daily and hourly
But try to be brave and content.

For years we journeyed together,
Heart to heart and hand in hand,
Though you were the first to journey
To that bright and better land.

Will you watch and wait my coming
When my lovely life is o'er?
Will you come and meet me, dear husband
When I reach that silent shore?
— Sadly missed by wife, Ureta. 38-1p

Rylstone

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher and
Nancy, of Windsor, and Mrs. Ray
Irven, of Stirling, spent Thursday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Rutherford and Miriam.

While at work with his father on Friday, Bob Spencer received quite a deep cut in the left wrist, when a chisel he was using slipped. It required five clamps to close the wound. He was rushed to Campbellford, where Dr. Ward Baker rendered first aid. A tourniquet was necessary to stop the flow of blood enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morton and Jim spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Anderson, Campbellford, where they attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Etta Hallstone, of Tweed. Mrs.
Hallstone is a sister of the Morton boys and Mrs. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Akins and sons
Bobbie and Carl, spent Sunday in Frankford, guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Vernon Wannamaker.

Word was received here Monday by Messrs. Tom McKeown and Wilfred
Spencer of the death in Shann Avon,
Sask., of their uncle, Gilbert Ketchen.
He will be remembered by many, as he was born and raised in Seymour, and spent many holidays here after moving to the West about 40 years ago. His wife, the former Frances Linn predeceased him some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Heath and family, of Wilton, spent Sunday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Heath and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morton.
Marlan, Lynn and Larry remained for a few days visit with their cousins,
Billy, Dorothy and Donna Morton.

Mr. Earl Finch celebrated a birthday on Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Mastin and daughters,
Dawne and Diane, of Belleville, spent a few days last week with her brother, Ellis and Mrs. Jones. Other callers on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Mastin were Rev.
E. Rowland and Mrs. Rowland, of Peterborough, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim
Palmer and Freddie and Mrs. G. W.
Jones, of Stirling.

Work has begun again on the bad
curve in the road near Wm. Steward's.
The hill is being cut down and the curve widened.

About all the results obtained from our articles of two weeks ago asking for news items, has been thinly and crudely veiled sarcasm. That is not the spirit in which it was intended.
We still would appreciate well-meant help.

Marsh Hill

Mrs. Lewis Wilson and Mrs. Alex

ter Johnston, of Harold, were Tuesday and Mr. Horton.

and Mrs. Roscoe Vanderwater on the arrival of a granddaughter. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ghent Saturday in Belleville Hospital.

Ontario.

TAKE A TIP

Hello Homemakers! It is not always the bride who puzzles over many common cooking problems! Husbands and teenagers are often confronted with cooking of vegetables when the homemaker has been delayed with car trouble or such. We are often asked such questions as — does this vegetable go into hot or cold water? How much water does it take? How long should I cook it?

So here's a pin-up note for the wall beside the range.

1. Start vegetables in boiling salted water (1 tsp. salt per quart of vegetables). Use the smallest possible amount of water $\frac{1}{2}$ inch deep in a heavy saucepan; 1 inch deep in lighter saucepan).
2. Cover saucepan tightly to avoid loss of Vitamin C.
3. Bring vegetables to a boil quickly, then turn electric element to low.
4. Cook vegetables just until a fork can easily pierce or cut into a piece.
5. Drain as soon as they are cooked, saving the water for gravy or sauce. 6. Keep vegetables hot by covering with a piece of cheesecloth and insert the saucepan in a kettle of hot water, if necessary.

Cooking Time Chart
(4 servings)

Ang Greens or Tops	12 to 20 mins.
Cauliflower, cut
in sections	8 to 12 "
String beans,
cut lengthwise	10 to 15 "
Green limas, shelled	20 to 25 "
Beets, sliced	10 to 20 "
Carrots, small, whole	20 to 25 "
Celery, cut 2 inches	15 to 20 "
Corn, cobs	5 to 7 "
Onions, whole	15 to 20 "
Marrow, 2 in. pieces	10 to 15 "
Peas, shelled	10 to 15 "
Potatoes,
halved in skin	25 to 30 "
Pumpkin, Squash, 2 ins.	25 to 30 "
Sweet Potatoes,
whole	30 to 40 "
Tomatoes, cut	10 mins.
Cabbage,
cut in sections	8 to 12 mins.

THE SUGGESTION BOX

1. A good saucepan with a tight-fitting cover is a wise investment for vegetable cookery.
2. For extra delicious flavour add some fresh young pods when cooking peas. Serve with peas.
3. For fluffy mashed potatoes mash them with $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk to 8 potatoes and beat until fluffy.
4. For French Spinach drain the cooked chop. Return greens to saucepan and add a thick white sauce seasoned with nutmeg or onion. Use a small amount of sauce — (1 tbs. per cup of greens.)
5. To retain the full flavour of corn which has been gathered for hours, remove the silk but not all the husks. Boil in unsalted water (10 to 15 mins.)
6. Serve raw cauliflowerers on the relish tray. When you boil cauliflowerer cook the tender leaves too — and serve with browned buttered crumbs.
7. Beets may become the favourite by cooking as shredded. To shredded beets add 1-3 cup cream, 1 tsp. of horseradish and salt.
8. Lima Beans combine deliciously with celery, carrots and tomatoes.
9. Parboil sweet peppers before you bake them. Wash and cut out seeds. Place 6 peppers in 2 cups hot water and $\frac{1}{2}$ tps. salt. Cover and boil 5 minutes. Drain and place in muffin tins or custard cups. Fill peppers and bake 20 minutes.
10. Serve stewed tomatoes hot or cold. Our favourite seasoning for 6 cups tomatoes is: 1 tsp. minced onion, $\frac{1}{2}$ tbs. sugar, 2 tbs. butter, 1-8 tsp. pepper and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup soft bread crumbs.
11. Fried Onion Rings: Slice large onions crosswise, $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick. Dip in slightly beaten egg, then flour. Fry in $\frac{1}{2}$ inch hot fat until delicate brown. Drain on absorbent paper and serve.

12. Corn patties are a meat accompaniment. Blend together 2 egg yolks, well beaten; $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. salt, dash of pepper, $\frac{1}{4}$ cups cooked corn, 3 tps. dripping and 3 tps. flour. Fold in 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten. Drop by teaspoons into a hot griddle. Cook until brown on each side.

Queensway Hotel
At Trenton Sold
To Toronto Man

Trenton's Queensway Hotel, which was gutted by fire in 1945, and then rebuilt, has been sold. The new owner of the hotel is Nels Kyhn, a Toronto man, who has had 25 years in the business.

Mr. Kyhn bought the Queensway from Bert High, former Belleville man who has owned it for the past eight years. Mr. High bought it from Ernie Russell. When it burned down, High rebuilt it. The new owner plans to enlarge and modernize the 24-room hotel.

Baby-Sitters
On Hand At C.N.E.

Expert, inexpensive, mass production baby-sitting will again be a useful service which the Canadian National Exhibition will offer to mothers this year. Near Dufferin Gates in Exhibition Park, 100 cots await infants up to three years of age who will be visiting the "Ex", August 24th to September 8th.

In a time of rising prices, parents will be glad to know that the service will cost them no more than it has for the past 25 years. The price remains at 10 cents an hour — probably the lowest priced baby-sitting anywhere.

Six graduate nurses will be on hand from 9.00 a.m. until 7.00 p.m. daily, with experts on hand for rush periods. When the child is left at the Creche, he is tagged with a number, and a number is put on the cot reserved for him. The mother must remember that number. To ensure the child's welfare, the mother must check back with the Creche each hour. Facilities for feedings are provided, and mothers may mix up their special formula in a private room.

Since the inception of the service, the Creche has never had any confusion over which child belongs to which parent. Even on Labor Day when they may care for almost 1,000 children, the CNE nurses have never lost track of any of their charges. Its a welcome haven for mothers who want to leave their blessings in skilled hands and security while they see the wonders of the world's largest annual exhibition.

The theme was "Giving." The opening hymn "There Shall Be Showers of Blessings," followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison; Scripture Reading by Mrs. E. Post, Matthew 12: 1-4; musical number by Mrs. William Fitchett and Mrs. Robt. Gay.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Howard Cooke. The Watch Tower was responded to by Mrs. G. Cooke, Mrs. Elmer Post, Mrs. H. Sables and Mrs. Frank Hammond. The offering was taken up by Miss Heather Grant. Mrs. Frank Hammond gave a reading, "The Art of Giving." Business period was conducted by the President. Hymn, "I Have A Say-

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

ONTARIO SHEEP BREEDERS' SALE

With the price of wool and lamb at an all time high, the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association will hold their annual sale of purebred Rams and Ewes on Friday, August 31st, in the Sheep and Swine Show Ring at the Canadian National Exhibition. In making this announcement, R. H. Graham, Secretary of the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association, stated both the time and place of the sale had been changed this year. One reason being that he felt that breeders wished to make their purchases at an earlier date, and also that, as most of the consignors to the sale are also regular exhibitors at the Canadian National Exhibition, it would be possible to have both the show and sale at the same time, rather than having two separate events.

He goes on to point out that consignors to this sale must all be regular exhibitors at the C.N.E. Therefore, any animal that is in the sale, must have previously been shown in regular classes at the C.N.E. It is the hope of the executive that with this ruling, the animals should be worthy examples of the breed and prove to be an attractive sale lot. Mr. Graham expects all breeds will be represented, but as the entries for the sale do not close till August 10th, the exact number have not been determined.

There will be three age groups in the ram offering, but only two in the Ewe. Ram lambs, yearlings and aged rams will be consigned, but only ewe lambs and yearling ewes can be offered.

An important point, states Mr. Graham is that if the buyer is not an exhibitor at the C.N.E., arrangements can be made for him to take his purchases home immediately following the sale. However, if the purchaser is an exhibitor, he will not be allowed to remove any purchases until they take their own animals home.

In conclusion, he feels that with the price of wool and lamb at the present high level, there are probably a number of people who are anxious to get back in the sheep business, and this being the case, a sale of good sound seed stock would be well received at this time.

WEED OF THE WEEK DODDER

Dodder, one of the worst weeds in Ontario, is a parasite and not a plant in the true sense of the term. It lives on a host plant and in time strangles it. For this reason, Dodder is sometimes called Strangle Weed or Devil's Gut. J. W. MacRae, Fieldman for the Crops Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, states that it is a very dangerous weed affecting legume crops not only in Ontario but throughout Canada and United States. As Dodder is very difficult to separate from legume seed, every attention should be given to this weed, particularly if we are to build up an export for our legume seed. For this reason, he feels that every precaution should be taken to prevent its introduction to farms which are presently free from it.

Dodder is easily recognized, as it has no leaves. The yellow stems are thread-like and twine around Clover, Alfalfa or Flax plants. By sending short suckers into the plant, Dodder absorbs the food meant for its host, and in time will kill it. Another difference noted by Mr. MacRae is that once Dodder germinates and contacts its host, the "root" dies and Dodder has no further contact with the soil. The thick clusters of white flowers in turn become seed pods containing many hard, grey or yellowish brown seeds. These are difficult to separate from legume seeds when they are being cleaned.

Prevention is the best means of control. Mr. MacRae states that only seed that has been tested and graded by one of the Dominion seed laboratories should be used. He goes on to say that, at the present moment, there is no machinery that will give 100% separation of dodder from legume seeds. Under the Dominion Seed Act it is an offence to transport any legume seed containing even a trace of Dodder.

However, he suggests that at the first sign of Dodder in the crop, it should be mowed and removed before the Dodder matures seed. Another recommendation he puts forth is to burn the crop particularly if the seed has already formed. This can be accomplished by either covering the patch with about three feet of straw or sprinkling kerosene or crude oil over the area.

The most important part of the control of Dodder is to prevent it from forming seed. Summer fallowing for one year followed by a hoed crop such as corn will kill most of the seed in the soil. However, Mr. MacRae declares that the seed may lie dormant in the soil for a number of years and one should always be on the lookout for further outbreaks. In any rotation of crops following an outbreak of Dodder, care should be taken not to incorporate clovers, buckwheat or flax in the rotation for a few years, declares Mr. MacRae.

He contends that Dodder knows no bounds. Although it thrives in warm winter climates, it appears to be gradually acclimatizing itself, as it has been found in the colder parts of the Province. It does not attack cereal grains or timothy, but favours clovers, buckwheat and flax. Mr. MacRae believes that too much emphasis cannot be placed on this weed and that all farmers should take every precaution to prevent its further spread.

BRITISH WOOL EXHIBIT AT C.N.E.

A yarn-spinning record breaker who toppled a record established in 1870 will be on hand at this year's Canadian National Exhibition to show how he did it.

No tall story teller, R. B. Patterson, of Halifax, England, spins the real thing in his record-breaking style. He will be part of the National Wool Textile Export Corporation exhibit at the C.N.E. and will demonstrate a 150 year old spinning wheel with which he created the all time record for spinning fine yarn. The old record was held by a Spalding spinster.

Mr. Patterson, a scientist turned museum director who has rediscovered many of the lost arts of processing wool textiles by hand will also show on primitive but ingenious hand machines how wool used to be carded, combed, spun, woven, fulled and cropped about the year 1750.

Twentieth century craftsmen will match yarns with Mr. Patterson's 18th century techniques on specially built machines as another feature of the British wool exhibit.

Capitalists In Calico

It comes as a surprise to menfolk that the hand that rocks the cradle also puts up the money to provide a great many people with employment.

The reference is to the fact recently published by Dominion Textile Company Limited, and no doubt applying to most other large Canadian corporations, that women outnumber men among their individual registered shareholders.

In view of the natural thrift and caution attributed to the distaff side it may seem logical enough that women should have become so important in corporate ownership, but it is a fact that has not been well known. In Dominion Textile, as is noted in the company's annual report and brought out in the form of institutional advertising, there are 3,110 women shareholders to 2,225 men. These women own more shares than the men do. Another interesting fact brought out in the report is that no one shareholder owns as much as one per cent of the stock.

The picture of the capitalist wearing a silk hat and morning suit needs bringing up to date. She wears a calico dress, except possibly on party occasions. —The Printed Word.

COOLING OFF!

It takes a lot of cooling to keep a Polar Bear happy. This largest member of the bear family is smaller than a porcupine at birth, but often weighs more than three-quarters of a ton when full grown. To this tremendous bulk, add the fact that the bear is covered with a thick, water-proof coat, which is designed to protect him in the Arctic... it's a big job keeping him cool in our zoos. Soil Survey In Hastings County

J. E. Gillespie, Field Husbandry Branch, Central Experimental Farm and William Pelton, Soils Department, O.A.C., Guelph, are making a complete survey of the soils of Hastings County.

The purpose of this Soil Survey is to make a study of the profile and nature of the soil, and eventually the report will be made of this which will be valuable to any interested parties in the county. They have covered a considerable acreage to date.

Farmers are urged to give them every co-operation. "If you wish to ask them a few questions, it will be quite alright but please do not monopolize their time for they certainly have a big job to do and we know they are capable of doing it," states Agricultural Representative A. O. Dalrymple.

Mt. Pleasant W.M.S.

The August meeting of Mount Pleasant Women's Missionary Society was held at the church on Wednesday, the 8th with twelve members, four visitors and three children in attendance.

Mrs. Burton Sharp presided at the piano and played quiet music. Mrs. Ross Hoard gave the Call to Worship, "God's Way For Me is Always Best," and all sang, "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult," after which a prayer for peace, written by L. S. Albright, was read from the July Monthly. Mrs. Percy MacMullen read the minutes and called the Roll. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Burton Sharp with Mrs. John Holmes and Mrs. Frank Jeffs to arrange the programme.

A quilting was planned for August 15th at the home of the President, and a bake sale in aid of supply work for Saturday 18th. The Treasurer reported almost ninety-one dollars for six months. The new Home Mission Packet which includes "From Lakes to Northern Lights," by Rev. Malcolm C. Macdonald D.D. and "Home Missions Digest," by Francis Bonwick, will be ordered.

The president read the Bible Lesson found in the 12th Chapter of Romans, after which Mrs. John Holmes gave the Worship Service as planned for this meeting in the Monthly on the theme, "Working Together." This worship period closed with the story "The Palace Made by Music," as written by Raymond Alden in his collection, "Why The Chimes Rang."

Mrs. Percy MacMullen read, "Men and Women Serving Trinidad," written by Harold F. Swann in the June Monthly. Many East Indian people have been educated in our Canadian Mission Schools in Trinidad, and today new buildings and major repairs receive two dollars from public funds for every dollar the Mission invests.

Sixty-seven Canadian schools are staffed with teachers who were trained in the Church Training College. Is not Trinidad unique in this partnership between a Missionary organization and government? The Civil Service and the oil fields have taken large numbers of young men from Najarima College. There are also doctors, dentists, lawyers, nurses, and it is hoped that these young people will be a Christian influence wherever they work.

Miss Ruth Linn contributed a vocal selection, after which the offering was dedicated.

Mrs. Roy Thrasher gave the closing Chapter of the Study Book on Japan. To-day's challenge to Western Christendom is to make democracy and above all Christianity, work greater miracles at home and send out a multitude of those qualified to show how spiritual forces may work similar miracles in the life of Japan.

Mrs. Frank Jeffs read a history of the author, Rev. Charles Wesley, who wrote, "Jesus Lover of My Soul." He was born in 1707 and died in 1788, and was a true poet and hymn writer. Thirty of his hymns are in the United Church Hymnal.

Mrs. Jeffs read the story of the Eggleton W.M.S. And W.A.

The W.M.S. and W.A. and Mission Band of Eggleton United Church held their joint meeting in the Church on August 9th. The President opened the meeting with a poem, followed by Hymn 133. All remained standing and repeated the Lord's Prayer. The Scripture Lesson taken from Romans 8: 16-28 and its commentary was read by Mrs. G. Nelson. The Roll Call was answered by 6 members and 10 Mission Band members. The collection amounted to $2.22. The regular business period followed and the minutes of the July meeting were read.

The children sang, "Jesus Loves Me." Thelma Prest and Marlene Madill each read a poem. Donna Stapley gave a piano solo. Mrs. W. Harlow gave a reading on "Strong Men," using the verse, "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong," taken from 1 Cor. 16, as the theme. Hymn 655 was sung, followed by the Mizpah Benediction. Lunch was served.

Colden, on the mound for Minto, pitched a steady game, giving up eight hits and two walks, and striking out five. Minto had ten hits and five strike outs.

Merrickville opened the scoring with two runs in the first inning, but Minto tied it in the second and went on to pile up a commanding lead. The visitors added two in the sixth.

Killed By Train Near Sulphide

Gordon Hetherington, an elderly man, of Lion's Head, Ont., was killed when struck by a C.P.R. train as he was walking on the track three miles east of Sulphide Tuesday noon.

TRUCK BURNS SOUTH OF VILLAGE SUN.; $10,000 LOSS

An estimated loss of ten thousand dollars resulted from a fire which completely destroyed a four-ton G.M.C. truck loaded with equipment belonging to the Carol Shows midway people of Toronto, on Sunday afternoon on Highway No. 14, just south of Stirling.

Driver of the truck, Don Ketcher, of Toronto, told Constable S. Eggleton and Provincial Police, who investigated, that paint was included in the load and it is believed that a can either upset or became jammed allowing the paint to leak through the platform onto the hot exhaust muffler. A streak of paint drops down the highway substantiated this idea as to the cause of the blaze.

The fire is said to have started on the top of the Oak Hills and it was not until the truck reached a point opposite Percy Craighead's that a passing lady motorist drew the attention of the driver to the blaze and the truck was brought to a stop. Nothing could be done to extinguish the blaze and the truck and contents were a complete loss. The truck was enroute from Brockville to Peterborough.

Band Concert Well Attended

Music lovers of Stirling and district enjoyed a Band Concert by Stirling Citizens' Band in the local Park on Sunday evening. The Band was under the direction of Bandmaster Maurice Bell.

Eight-Year-Old Boy Pinned Against Fence By Truck

Pinned by the throat against a wire fence by a truck said to be in charge of Leo Ryan, 24 years old, of Harold, eight-year old Lance Beer, son of Mrs. Margaret Beer, Bleeker Ave., Belleville, is in Belleville General Hospital with possible concussion and spinal injuries.

The accident took place at Ivanhoe, at 8.30 Tuesday morning as the Beer boy who was assisting to feed calves from a ditch at the side of the road.

On a straight stretch of road the southbound truck left the road and went into the ditch directly toward Nathan Reid and the Beer boy who were feeding the calves. Reid was able to jump clear but the Beer boy was pinned against the fence by the fender of the truck.

The driver of the truck seeing the boy was seriously hurt ran down the road and two hours later provincial police were still searching for him. The man jumped over a fence and disappeared into a cornfield on the Reid farm.

The little lad nearly died of strangulation before Mr. Reid could cut the wire fence and free him. When the wire was cut the boy's face was nearly black as result of his breath being cut off by pressure of the truck fender.

He was rushed to hospital by Bush's Ambulance where he was X-rayed for possible skull and spinal injuries.

Nearly Hit Cows

Before plowing into the ditch and striking the boy, the truck was said to have narrowly missed Mr. Reid's herd of cows being driven to pasture by Terry Beer, 12, brother of the injured lad. The truck then left the road, sped directly towards the group feeding the calves in the ditch.

Besides Mr. Reid and the Beer boy, the group included Walton Reid and Don Seymour, age 12 years.

Belleville Bowlers In Gov. General's Competition

The Belleville Lawn Bowling Club will again be represented in the Governor-General's competition to be held in Ottawa beginning on September 1st. Representatives from every district in Ontario will send two rinks to this competition and a playdown will be arranged, the draw being a knockout one. The local club had the honor of winning this trophy three years ago and the members of the winning rinks were presented with blazers and crests from the city.

On Monday night at Brighton, the Belleville bowlers hooked up with Campbellford, winners of their section in a 31-end game with total scores to count and were victorious by a good margin. The personnel of the winning rinks were Orlo Smith, Gordon Edwards, Howard Hanton and L. E. McLennan, skip and Ray Grant, Percy Graham, Gordon Watkin and A. E. Wonnacott, skip.

Geo. Wade and His Corn Huskers Provide Music — Large Crowd In Attendance

Success crowned the efforts of President Cliff Hatton and his fellow Rotarians at the Rotary Street Fair and Dance held on Mill Street last night. The net proceeds amounted to approximately five hundred dollars, which will be used in the Club's Crippled Children's Work and other benevolent activities.

Games of all kinds were in operation and were well patronized by the large crowd. Music for dancing was provided by Geo. Wade and his Corn Huskers, of Toronto, who delighted the large crowd with his excellent music. A local tinge was added to the programme when Art Woods, of Glen Ross, rendered three request numbers on his harmonica. He received a good round of applause for his efforts. Refreshment booths were also operated by wives of the Rotarians.

Wren Draw

A draw was made on a electric tea kettle and two Panda Bears, with Mrs. Clayton Burditt holding the lucky ticket on the kettle and Mrs. Ernie Broadworth and Carman Bruce winning the bears.

Door Prizes

The draw for door prizes resulted in ticket number 558 (no name) winning first prize, $20; ticket No. 594 (no name) second prize, $10; and ticket No. 1364, held by W. J. Tanner, of Harold, winning third prize of $5.00.

The officers and members of the Rotary Club are deeply grateful for the generous patronage of the citizens of Stirling and surrounding community.

Minister of Welfare 50 Years Old

Constituents of all political persuasions were represented at a huge gathering at the farm home of Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, Minister of Public Welfare for Ontario, and member of Northumberland Riding in the Ontario House. During the course of the evening Hon. Mr. Goodfellow, Mrs. Goodfellow and their family opened their home to well-wishers from every corner of the riding, and to some from beyond its borders. It is estimated that close to 500 friends came and went at various stages of the evening, among whom was Dr. Fred J. Robertson, M.P., who came to pay his respects on the half-century birthday milestone to his colleague in governmental circles.

While in Tweed they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Elliott and family.

Bethlehem Steel Mining Company Develop Iron Deposits At Marmora

An iron mining operation that will employ about 225 men and involve expenditures running into millions of dollars is in prospect for Eastern Ont., Premier Frost said Tuesday.

Exploration work has been completed and plans are being advanced for the working of recently discovered ore deposits at Marmora.

Premier Frost revealed that the Marmora Co., a subsidiary of Bethlehem Steel, has begun preliminary work of clearing timber and brush from a site where indicated deposits are for a 25 or 30 years' supply.

"The operations indicated . . . involve the expenditure of a very considerable sum of money, running into the millions," he said.

Iron was mined in the Marmora district as early as 1820. With the discovery of higher grade sources, notably the Mesabi Range in Minnesota, the Marmora deposits were passed over.

In 1949 the Ontario Department of Mines initiated an aerial magnetometer survey of the area. Bethlehem Steel became interested and, in 1950, diamond drilling was started. Some 30 holes were put down.

Now, although some matters remain to be worked out, plans for developing the deposits are taking shape.

An open-pit operation is indicated at present. First, a capping of limestone, about 150 feet thick, must be removed to expose the ore. This—it involves the removal of 10,000,000 yards of capping—will take about two years.

The ore, which will average about 40 per cent iron, will be hoisted from the pit on an incline. It will be crushed and ground and treated by magnetite concentration. An annual production of 400,000 tons of concentrate is anticipated.

A concentrator will be constructed while the stripping operation is going on and will be ready to operate as soon as the first ore is mined.

It is expected that ore production will be limited to eight months of the year, but miners will be kept at work the year-round, doing stripping and waste removal in the four winter months.

It will be necessary to build ore docks on Lake Ontario, but a location has not been decided upon as yet.

Interest in the old, almost forgotten iron deposits of Eastern Ontario was reawakened by the continent's growing iron ore shortage, the Premier said. The province pressed the federal government to undertake an aerial magnetometer survey. Eventually the federal government supplied the aircraft, the province the technicians.

Results of this survey were sufficiently encouraging that private drilling explorations were started.

"The presently indicated ore body makes certain that this (new mining) operation can be carried on for 25 to 30 years, and no doubt, as in all these cases, other ore bodies will be discovered. This justifies the faith of the Department of Mines that iron ore existed in Eastern Ontario."

Shirley Elliott, Leader Ontario Athletic Training Camp

Congratulations to Shirley Elliott, of Stirling High School, who has completed her two weeks' leadership training course at the Ontario Athletic Training Camp on the shores of beautiful Lake Couchiching. On the night of the closing banquet Shirley was the proud recipient of her distinctive honour crest, presented to all girls who worthily discharged their responsibilities as representatives of their schools.

For two years now, the Physical Education Branch of the Ontario Department of Education has offered courses for girls at the Ontario Athletic Training Camp under the directorship of Mr. J. E. McCutcheon, University of Toronto, and Miss Gladys McIntyre, Leaside High School. Other staff members this year included Miss Elizabeth Graham, Northern Vocational, Toronto; Miss Nancy Redfern, of Belleville C.I.; Miss E. MacDonald, of Western Technical School, Toronto; Miss E. McNelis, Galt C.I.; Miss Joyce Pollock, Orillia C.I.; Miss Janet Taylor, York Memorial C.I.; Miss Betty Winchester, Kingsville H.S.; Miss Claire Walsh, Scarboro C.I.; (Senior Instructor) and Miss Alice Woldnick, Parry Sound, the camp nurse.

It is considered a great honour to be chosen as school representative for this camp that offers a significant contribution in leadership training for schools and communities throughout the province.

A carefully planned schedule enables the girls both to develop their leadership ability and to value the privilege of living and co-operating with girls from all parts of Ontario. In addition to the basic instruction given in such varied activities as basketball, volleyball, speedball, badminton, tennis, archery, golf, track and field, swimming and square dancing, training in the art of public speaking is an important feature.

As all activities progress, the girls have every opportunity of refereeing, coaching, teaching, planning and running tournaments, track and swim meets, and square dance parties. In addition, the Leaders' Council takes complete charge of all Chapel Services, presides over closing banquet ceremonies; assigns camp administration duties, and enforces disciplinary measures for breaches of camp regulations.

In these ways, the girls are being trained to assist in school or community recreation programmes. Also, by experiencing the joy of teaching and by learning to co-operate with others, they are receiving a valuable character training which may help them to be better citizens with high ideals.

Two Hurt As Car Truck Colide

John Pressuk, 38, Cordova and Michael Callery, 41, Marmora Township, were admitted to Belleville General Hospital early Saturday morning, suffering from back and head injuries received Friday night in a truck crash on Highway 7.

Bernard Stewart, Springbrook, who received hand lacerations, was treated at the scene of the accident.

When filled with hot water, a thick glass will crack more quickly than a thin one.

Wellman's W.I.

Wellman's Women's Institute held their August meeting at the home of Mrs. Lindsay Pollock on Wednesday the 15th.

The meeting opened in regular form with the Opening Ode and Lord's Prayer. The Roll Call was responded to with "Don't for the Kitchen." The motto, "Life is like a garden; it bears the fruit we sow," was given by Doris Dunham, was a splendid lesson reminder.

The programme put on by the girls, consisted of a piano solo by Miss Shirley Dunham, followed by two vocal numbers, first by Miss Nancy Chumbley, and the second by Miss Ruth Clancy, and a reading by Miss Patsy Pollock.

The topic, "Home Economics," was taken by Miss Doris Pollock, who outlined the study on Home Economics in the course she had recently completed in Toronto by the Department of Education. She gave some demonstrations on table service, garnishing plates, sewing and craft work.

Mrs. Lorne Watson moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Pollock for opening her home and to Doris for the splendid talk.

Lunch was a "Dagwood" Sandwich Contest. A variety of sandwich filling was placed on a table along with plenty of bread and butter and each one made their "Dagwood Sandwich."

The meeting closed with the National Anthem and Institute Creed.

$100,000 Fire Sweeps Belleville Area

An estimated $100,000 damage was caused Saturday night by fire that gutted a cement block structure housing Everett H. Blacks' transport company, Leclithan Products of Canada, Soybean Oil Producers, and Welding Supplies and Supply of Canada.

Drums of soybean oil and welding gas cylinders exploded, tearing off part of the roof and hurling debris over a wide area.

The blaze was brought under control after an hour and a half.

Find Body

Earlier the same night the body of Wilfred Ferguson, 36-year-old laborer was found on a chesterfield in the smoking ruins of his three-room shack after firemen had extinguished a blaze in the building.

Bethel Busy B's

The eleventh meeting of the Bethel Busy B's was held on August 11th at the summer cottage of Mrs. Alton Hadley with the Vice President, Marlene Hadley in charge.

The Secretary's report was given by Shirley Cooney and approved as read. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ed. McKeown. The programme committee will consist of Shirley Cooney and Barbara Hadley. It was decided that the girls have their Baptismal Fountain. The collection was taken by Eleanor McGee, which amounted to 89 cents.

Swimming was enjoyed for recreation and a delicious lunch was served.

What Others Say!

BLOW YOUR TOP

(London Free Press)

A Chicago doctor has discovered that the failure of people to release pent-up anger contributes directly to poor health. He says the most cheerful parents with the least frustration and tension are those who explode their anger when it arises. If you want to feel better, blow your top when you're mad, he advises.

Now, this is very interesting advice, especially since most of us have been "blowing our tops" for a good many years without knowing that it was good for us. Psychiatry is a wonderful thing, and a great many bad-tempered individuals will be pleased to know that their bad habit is really a tonic.

Inter-Club

Team Demonstration

On Wednesday, August 15th, the interesting part of the Junior Program was the Inter-Club Team Demonstrations put on by three members in any club in Hastings County. The first team consisted of John McComb, Bob Mallory and Griffin Ketcheson of the Second Year Grain Club. They used as the theme of their demonstration, Soil Sampling and its value. This team certainly had organized their skit and in it brought out the value and proper method of taking soil samples in a manner that left no doubt in the mind of the spectator as to why or how it should be done. The second prize team members were Carl Reid, Merle Moore and Basil Moore all members of the Stirling Dairy Calf Club. They in their demonstration showed how to clip and prepare the calf for exhibit and also showed the proper method of throwing an animal to trim the hoofs.

Third prize team who were members of the First Year Grain Club gave a demonstration on Treating Seed for the prevention of Disease and explained the value of the same. The members of this team were Milton McGee, Ronald Hadley and Robert Munro, all of the Stirling district. Prize money to value of $9.00, $7.50, and $6.00 per team is provided by the Belleville Exhibition and the Dominion Department of Agriculture through their Junior Grant to Class B Fairs.

Fire Bug At Work In Lyndoch Township

Six new fires were reported in the Quinte District during the week as warm dry weather continued and the hazard mounted.

Careless smokers were blamed for a 12 acre fire in Lyndoch Township and a half acre blaze in Wollaston. The other four fires on Lot 12, Concession XI Lyndoch, broke out on the evening of July 30th and only prompt action by rangers working during the night, kept the total acreage to 7 acres. Indications that the fires were set deliberately were reported to Provincial Police officials who immediately launched an investigation.

Fortunately "Fire Bugs" have been scarce in recent years, but regrettably the same can not be said of careless smokers. Fires started in this way continue to exceed any other group and can so easily be eliminated by a little thought and effort. Let's remember that the forests and streams are here to enjoy, not destroy.

Two Men Unhurt As Car Skids Crashes Tree

Two Campbellford men narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday night, when their 1950 model car went out of control on Highway 40 about five miles north of Campbellford, and came to rest on its top against a large oak tree.

Jack Smith, 26, owner and driver of the car, and Mike Mahoney, 25, the only other occupant, managed to crawl through a shattered window without a scratch.

The particular section of highway where the car came to grief is at present under construction. A section of the roadway is being lowered, and traffic is detoured around the 15-foot excavation, with cars coming from both directions using the left-hand lane.

Rocket Explodes Near Trenton

A rocket attached to the wing of a standing RCAF training plane fired prematurely Sunday, roared over the nearby Air Force Station and dug a large crater in a field 1½ miles away.

Airmen at the station said the rocket would have landed in the town had the plane been pointed in a different direction.

Air Force officials said no one was near the plane when the rocket fired. It was one of four attached to the plane and was intended for bombing practice over Lake Ontario.

Letter To The Editor

There has been plenty of criticism of the union dues check-off system, but there has been very little specific explanation in defence of it, even from trade union leaders themselves. This is unfortunate in view of the fact that the miners in Timmins, not to mention the people of that city, are suffering the loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars because of a strike which is being continued solely on the question of the check-off.

Union leaders link the check-off with "union security" and it is that all right, for it secures the regular payment of dues upon which the union depends for its maintenance.

To put the problem in plain English, in the Timmins strike the union leaders are demanding that the Hollinger Mining Company guarantee the financial security of an organization that stirs up unrest among its employees and is directly responsible for the present strike. In order to obtain their own security the union leaders have imperilled the security of a great industry, upon which the city of Timmins largely depends, and have deprived the miners and their families of their means of livelihood for more than five weeks.

St. Paul's-Carmel

(By Rev. A. E. Baker, U.E.)

The Carmel congregation has withdrawn its services for Sunday afternoon, August 26th to allow all members so desiring to join in the pilgrimage to the Hay Bay Church — the cradle of Methodism in Upper Canada.

Many will make up carloads with basket lunches and will eat them on arrival at Hay Bay about 1.30 p.m. Others will take basket lunches and eat them after the service about 4.30 a.m. The earlier hour will probably be more acceptable to those with farm duties in the early evening.

The pilgrimage service will be held at 3 p.m., Daylight Saving Time, and the guest speaker will be Rev. V. T. Mooney, D.D., Treas. of the United Church of Canada.

It is hoped that many from St. Paul's Stirling, will join this cavalcade after the morning service or plan to be there at 3 p.m.

Hay Bay Church is 56 miles from Stirling via Highway No. 33. Drive through Picton, cross on the Glenora Ferry just beyond the Lake on the Mountain (Prince Edward County), thence along the scenic highway nine miles to the Conway Church corner (red brick church on left) — turn left on road on the west side of the church, follow it for three miles to Hay Bay Church. The ferry is free and leaves on the quarter hour from the landing near the old mill and fish hatchery. Returning the ferry leaves on the hour and half hour.

The alternate route is by Highway No. 2 until the side road is reached leading to Highway No. 33. The distance might be a little longer, but there would be no ferry delay at Glenora. The turn off No. 2 is just beyond Napanee leading to Adolphustown.

Memorial Flowers

The tall memorial standards at St. Paul's last Sunday were filled with gladioli in loving memory of Major Ivan Harold Martin, (M.I.D.) D.S.C. (American), who was killed in action at St. Lambert Sur Dives, Normandy, August 21st, 1944. One of these tributes was the love gift of his parents, Harold C. and Pearl Martin, and the other in loving memory of "Daddy" from his children, Robert Ivan and Nancy Elizabeth Martin.

Another beautiful floral memorial basket was placed in the sanctuary in loving memory of mother, Mrs. Sarah (Hiram) Rosebush, who entered her rest August 10th, 1947, the love gift of her sons and daughters. Mrs. Arthur Morrison also kindly sent flowers from her garden while pulpit roses came from Hillsholme.

A fourth basket of lovely flowers was placed in the sanctuary in loving memory of Herbert David, who entered his rest September 11th, 1950, the loving thought of his wife and family.

A beautiful two-bloom Easter Lily graced the communion table. This plant was grown by Mrs. Carleton Wright who graciously loaned it to the church.

All flowers were tastefully arranged by Mrs. Cornett.

Rev. W. S. Irwin and his daughter, Mrs. Baker, sang duets with guitar accompaniment at both St. Paul's and Carmel last Sunday week and Mr. Harold Hagerman on Civic Sunday at St. Paul's. Mrs. J. Black was the guest soloist last Sunday. St. Paul's Choir has done itself "proud" in numbers numerically and musically throughout the summer season. As a result of changes of residence it is expected that there will be two or three vacancies this fall. All persons interested in choral work who are not attached to other church choirs, or whose services would conflict with St. Paul's, are invited to attend St. Paul's Choir rehearsals commencing Thursday, Sept. 6th, at 7.30 p.m.

Royal Choir

The Royal Stirling Junior Choir will begin its practices on Thursday, Sept. 6th after school in the Sunday School Hall. These rehearsals are open to all children desiring choral training. It is expected that those belonging to other churches will loyally attend their own churches participating in those special services only which do not conflict with their own services.

The choir fee is five cents per family per week. Mrs. Ken Belcourt is the Secretary-Treasurer and receives the fees as children attend each practice. Absence is charged for except in cases of reported sickness. Any member desiring to discontinue choir work should notify the conductor and Secretary. All St. Paul's members of the choir are expected to participate each Sunday morning in the church service except they that have been excused.

The Royal Choir is for boys of unchanged voices and girls up to 16 years of age. Girls at 16 and boys whose voices change will be given an opportunity to join the Senior Choir. While it is recognized that some chilren would not attend Public School unless required to do so, likewise some children will not attend choir rehearsals unless required by their parents. The choir however has no place for either boys or girls who are not willing to try to improve their talents. The enthusiasm of most members who realize what a great opportunity the choir presents must not be shadowed by those who are unready or unwilling to co-operate.

In view of the great demand for private instruction over and above all choir practices it has been decided to give the noonday Thursday to those who are seeking such further assistance rather than hold it for the use of boys who were more or less intermittent working. Boys who are really interested are invited to see the conductor who will strive to help them.

The Royal Choir will include in its fall and winter program rehearsals for "The Cobbler of Fairyland". This presentation will afford excellent training in poise, expression and dramatic art in general. Boys and girls will be given an opportunity to qualify for special parts.

Neither choir or Fairyland rehearsals will interfere with the normal homework of boys or girls in either Public or High School. Rehearsals in the Fall will be confined to the regular choir periods on Thursday afternoons.

The training in diction, expression and deportment will help all school students and prove of great value in their regular school work.

Booze and Business

The fifth column that is undermining our moral, social and financial life is the awful loss sustained through the wasteful, demoralizing drink habit. The dollar that is spent on "booze" is not available for boots, bread, clothing or furniture. It is estimated that a million dollars a day is spent on this wasteful habit which often robs the cradle and sows the seeds of divorce and disease.

A leading citizen of Hastings village said last week that the argument that a licensed outlet will do away with "bootleggers" is a proven falsehood.

If women must smoke they are counseled to defer the habit until they are ineligible for motherhood. Some authorities contend that the children of cigarette smoking mothers are handicapped from birth. It will probably be several years before figures are available. In the meantime the unfolding life of every boy and girl should be carefully studied.

The art of make-up is to so apply it that no one could even suspect its use. Such artists appear to be in the minority. Skill will probably grow with experience. The amateur will give place to the artisan. Meantime let us exercise the grace of patience.

Old Plan Found

Robert A. Patterson recently discovered the plan of village lots 23 to 27 on the South Side of Church St. (Charlotte) and 1 to 6 on the North Side of Front Street dated September 25th, 1875. This historic document shows the Faulkner property lot 6 at the corner of Front and Emily Street vacant next on lot 5 two buildings, a frame dwelling and drug store premises occupied by Thos. S. Baker (grandfather of the Minister of St. Paul's) until his death in 1855. These buildings were almost on the street line. They have been removed and the residence of Dr. Carleton now stands on this property. Lot No. 4 was occupied by Dr. Joshua McLean, who died December 18th, 1858, aged 41 years, and is buried in Stirling Cemetery. It is now the home of Councillor Walter T. Elliott. On lot 3 was situated the present Everett Ketcheson home and half and half on the street line of Lots 2 and 3 was the Ralph Blacksmith Shop, somewhat back from the street. Lot 2 was the dwelling now occupied by Cecil Macklin. All of these lots were part of Lot No. 11 of the first concession of Rawdon before the village was incorporated and the village lots defined. Mr. Patterson is to be congratulated on the discovery of this historic document. Mr. Patterson is a direct descendant of the United Empire Loyalists, his mother being Martha Hagerman, daughter of Matilda Ketcheson and her husband, Benjamin Hagerman. Benjamin Hagerman was a son of Henry Hagerman who came from New York to Adolphustown in early settlement days and from thence to the Front of Sidney. Mrs. Hagerman (Matilda) mother of Martha (Mrs. Patterson) was a daughter of Col. Wm. Ketcheson who died in 1874 and a granddaughter of Col. Wm. Ketcheson, who was born at Haden, Yorkshire, in 1759, and a first subscriber to the first Methodist Church erected in Upper Canada at Hay Bay.

By the decree of King George III, Robert A. Patterson and his descendants are entitled to the use of U.E. by which proven descendants of the Loyalists are properly designated. While Governor Simcoe doubtless hoped that these Loyalists and their descendants should form an aristocracy in Upper Canada it is enough to be known as men and women who serve God and honour the King.

It is hoped in time to publish a list of those eligible to become members of the United Empire Loyalist Association. Those who marry Loyalists may become associate members.

Plan to make up a carload and join in the Pilgrimage to Hay Bay for service at 3 p.m. E.D.T. in the first Methodist Church in Upper Canada next Sunday, August 26th.

Traffic Deaths Still High

At least 84 people were killed in Ontario by street and highway accidents last month, compared with 97 in the same month a year ago.

Despite this improved record for July, Ontario's 1951 accident death toll to date (seven months) remains high at 468 killed, against 375 in the same period last year. And already, since the end of July, another 13 people died in Civic Holiday Week-end traffic.

Comparing this July and last, all accident types shared in the month's fatality drop, except pedestrian and bicycle accidents. July accidents killed 23 pedestrians this year (up from 21), and four cyclists were killed (up from none in July 1950).

There were 15 children (age 0-14) among the July victims. Only two were car passengers, against 12 in July 1950. None of the children killed were on bicycles, but 13 were pedestrians compared with seven a year ago. On the other hand, the seven-month total of children killed stands at 76, still fewer than the 80 children who died in traffic during the same period last year.

Frankford Couple Go To Hamilton

Word has been received that Bill Berscht, popular Frankford resident, will be leaving shortly to take up a new position in Hamilton. Bill has been in Frankford approximately four years and has won many friends during his stay. Bill has taken a keen interest and active part in sports in the village of Frankford, managing a juvenile team to the Eastern Ontario O.A.S.A. finals in 1948, piloting the Frankford intermediates to the Trent Valley Softball League finals, and the O.A.S.A. semi-finals for Eastern Ontario in 1949, and a midget team to the Eastern Ontario finals in 1950.

In 1951 he was elected president of the Trent Valley Softball League and has done a capable job especially with the many difficulties that have arisen in the league this year.

JUST A SCRATCH

A scratch or cut, however small, should never be neglected. It is a gateway for germs that may cause infection unless it is cleaned immediately and, if necessary, covered with a sterile dressing. A knowledge of first aid is valuable in the treatment of injury, whether minor or major.

"Front Lines of Freedom..."

The job of the infantryman has become tougher, more complex. He must be able to handle more weapons and to meet a greater variety of situations in defence and attack.

RIVER VALLEY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

We gain experience from strife,
Not from a college, but from life;
Through loss and gain we all must go.
To learn what youth can never know
And see with understanding eyes,
Before we folk can be really wise.

ONTARIO

Hello Homemakers! Whatever you serve the family this weather, try to tuck in one light, warm dish per meal and surround it with one that is cool and smooth. Do not try to turn "tummies" into refrigerators, because the results will be topsy-turvy.

Jellied soups and consommé are perfect for warm weather and can be substituted for fruit or vegetable juices with a hot dinner. Canned jellied consommé comes in several flavours and can be jellied right in the can by placing it in the electric refrigerator for several hours or overnight. Before serving, whip the jellied consommé with a fork, serve in cup and garnish with chopped chives and parsley. Serve lemon juice or Worcestershire sauce and let your guests flavour to taste.

Jellied Tomato Soup

4 cups tomatoes, raw, cut
1 medium onion, sliced
Few celery leaves
Few peppercorns
3 bouillon cubes
1 tsp. parsley
1 tsp. gelatin
3 cup cold water
Salt and pepper

Simmer tomatoes, onion, bay leaf, celery and seasonings for 25 mins. Strain. This should yield about 3 cups of juice. Add bouillon cubes and minced parsley. Soften gelatin in cold water and add to hot juice, stirring until dissolved. Season with salt and pepper. Chill. Beat slightly with a fork before serving. Make enough for 6.

Chicken Cream Pie

Pastry for 1 flaky pie crust
Pieces of cold chicken
Pieces of dressing
½ can mushrooms
Gravy and white sauce

It takes 3 cups of a mixture of gravy and white sauce for 1 cup meat and 1 cup dressing. Pour a generous amount of gravy in a casserole. Add meat and dressing with remainder of gravy in layers. Sprinkle on mushrooms. Pat the rolled out pastry to fit over the top of meat. Cut slits in pastry. Bake in a preheated electric oven of 425 degs. for 25 mins. Serve hot.

String Beans in Sour Cream

2 tbsps. minced onion
1 tsp. dripping
1 tsp. flour
1 tsp. sugar
Salt to taste
½ cup sour cream
1 tsp. vinegar
3 cups cooked beans
½ green pepper

Brown onion in fat; add flour, sugar, salt and cream. Cook stirring until thick. Add vinegar and sliced green pepper. Pour over hot cooked string beans. Serves 4.

Ginger Pear Salad

1 pkg. lime jelly powder
1 cup hot water
1 cup gingerale
1 cup diced pears
1-3 cup chopped pecans
1 tsp. candied ginger
Mayonnaise

Dissolve gelatin in water, add gingerale and chill. When slightly thickened fold in pears (raw or cooked) nuts and minced ginger. Turn into greased molds, chill until firm in electric refrigerator. Unmold and garnish with a mixture of ½ cup whipped cream, ½ cup mayonnaise and 1 tsp. minced ginger.

TAKE A TIP

1. Fresh Blueberry Sauce: Let 1 pint blueberries stand 2 hours with ½ cup sugar. Press through a puree.

2. To poach fruit: Place a single layer of prepared fruit in a thin sugar-and-water syrup. Simmer until the pieces are cooked but do not stir. Spoon syrup over fruit to glaze.

4. Lemon sherbet is a tasteful way of serving fresh fruits ice-cold. Place cubed melons and berries on a serving of sherbet. Then pass Creme de Menthe to pour over the fruit and ice — only a teaspoonful makes the dessert superb.

4. Do not place ice cream or frozen sherbet onto a crystal plate — sometimes they break. Use sherbet glasses.

5. To crush peppermint stick candy for an ice cream or cake topping, place it in a piece of cheese cloth and pound with a potato masher on the chopping board.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. J. E. W. asks: How do you pan fry liver?

Answer: Dip 1-3 inch slices of veal, beef or lamb liver in flour. Brown in a small amount of hot fat (not smoking hot). Reduce the heat at once. Remember over-cooking at high temperature toughens liver. Cook over low heat 5 to 15 minutes depending upon quantity. Turn once.

Mrs. T. S. asks: How do you cook bacon for 12 people?

Answer: A large quantity of bacon may be easily baked. Place separate slices on broiling pan rack or a wire cake rack in a baking pan. Bake at 400 degrees until brown, about 10 mins.

Wellman's W.A. And W.M.S.

A meeting of the Women's Missionary Society and Woman's Association was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Beckett on August 7th, when they entertained the Mission Band members. The President of the W.M.S., Mrs. L. Pollock, presided and opened the meeting by singing the theme song. Hymn 358 was sung, followed by Prayer. The Scripture Reading, found in Romans, 12th chapter, verses 4-10, was read by Mrs. H. Fanning.

A duet was given by Mrs. F. Beckett and Carol with banjo accompaniment, "Listen Little Sun Beams," followed by a reading by Mrs. Clifford Clancy, entitled, "Palace Made by Music." Hymn 549 was sung. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Geo. Watson. Mrs. Chas. Dunham gave a reading, "Gifts for the Master," followed by a piano solo by Chas. Nix; Mrs. Burton Morton told a very interesting Mission Band story; piano solo, by Miss Shirley Dunham; reading by Miss Delia Johnston, "A Hobby for Jerry." The meeting closed with prayer.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants and the Mission Band treated all to an abundance of home-made candy.

A vote of thanks was given the hostess for her kind hospitality and a social half hour enjoyed when the Band members played games and all agreed they had had a very fine afternoon.

Put Out Your Camp Fire

The Department of Lands and Forests float entered in the parade Saturday night when Tweed commemorated its 60th Anniversary and featured the proper way to extinguish a campfire. Two members of the District Office staff representing a couple of fishing enthusiasts poured water on the charred sticks and felt for sparks as the parade worked its way back and forth along the main street.

Later in the evening, as he massaged his hands with skin lotion, one of the boys remarked cheerfully "It was well worth the effort, if it only saves one fire."

Tomato Canning Starts In District

Canning of tomatoes has commenced in the Bay of Quinte district but factories generally will not commence operations for some days, according to the weekly crop report issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

One factory in Prince Edward County made a small run of tomatoes last week-end, however, general crops will be somewhat later than usual, it was stated.

Wheat is not yielding as well as was anticipated but oat yields are higher than average, according to a report from Peterborough County. Many fields of oats are going down with the rain, but it is estimated that over 30 per cent of the crop has been cut.

Second crop hay is a splendid crop. Corn is only fair to good. Sod is being plowed for wheat.

NEWCASTLE DISEASE

A total of 412 flocks infected with Newcastle Disease was destroyed and $330,000 compensation was paid for them during the period April 1st to August 4th, 1951, a report by Dr. T. Childs, Veterinary Director General, showed.

During last week three new cases of the disease, two of which were vaccinated, were discovered in British Columbia. Three blocks containing 861 birds and 60 eggs were destroyed with compensation of $1,712.

In Alberta, 11 flocks, comprising 1,423 birds and 372 eggs were destroyed. Compensation was $1,849.

Six flocks were destroyed in Saskatchewan. These consisted of 1,536 birds and 246 eggs. Compensation was $1,230.

Three flocks comprising 475 birds and 12 eggs were destroyed in Manitoba, where compensation was $850.

One flock of 137 birds was destroyed in Ontario and compensation was $136.

There have been no cases reported in Quebec or the Maritimes.

BUMPER CO-OP YEAR

Canadian co-operative business organizations did a bumper business during 1950—the year incidentally which marked half-a-century of co-operative effort in Canada.

Total business in 1950 at considerably over one billion dollars ($1,039,837,258) was the largest ever transacted. Compared with 1949 it showed an increase of $38.4 million. The number of associations at 2,951 increased by 314 and membership was up 118,177. In 1953, the first year for total business through 795 associations amounted to $145,303.

These are the highlights of the 19th annual summary of co-operative organizations in Canada, a study made each year by the Economics Division, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. Mr. J. E. O'Meara, who supervises the work, points out that although not all of the known Canadian co-operatives reported their 1950 operations, the chief organizations were all included, and so the summary gives a reasonably accurate picture of co-operative activities.

Co-operative sales of farm products made up $803.6 million of the total; sales of merchandise such as farm machinery, feed, fertilizer, coal, wood and building material, food products, clothing and home furnishings, amounted to $206 million; sales of fish and fish products amounted to $13.8 million; and sales of fishermen's supplies and merchandise totalled $3.9 million. Miscellaneous items made up the remainder of this more than one billion dollar business.

It is calculated that during the twelve months to July 1950, co-operatives marketed 35.2 per cent of the main farm products that were sold commercially. Omitting grain and seed, in the marketing of which co-operatives are very active, still one-quarter of all farm produce was handled by these organizations. Of individual products, co-operatives sold 99.4 per cent of the tobacco; 76.4 per cent of the wool; 60.6 per cent of the grains; 38.8 per cent of the fruits and vegetables; 33 per cent of the honey; 28.2 per cent of the maple products; 27.9 per cent of the dairy products and 15.3 per cent of the poultry and eggs.

Merchandising co-operatives reported an increase of $14 million over their sales in 1949. The increases were mainly in sales of groceries, coal, wood and building materials.

Of the 104 fishermen's associations reporting, the bulk are in Quebec and the Maritimes. But the seven in British Columbia which sold fish to the value of $7 million accounted for just over half of the total sales for all Canada.

During 1950 Canada's newest province, Newfoundland, organized a provincial co-operative union. Plans are under way to merge with the Co-operative Union of Canada by 1952.

LIVESTOCK PROTECTION MEASURE

As part of this country's Civil Defence programme in the event of bacterial or biological warfare, a special organization to be named the Animal Health Emergency Organization, has been established in Canada, the Department of Agriculture announces.

Department officials point out that world scientists have warned that biological attack has now become so perfected that it could be used successfully in wartime to work havoc on a country's livestock and so strike a crippling blow at food resources.

Under the present establishment, the Department has trained officials fully capable of dealing with such a threat.

The new organization has been set up to expand normal services of the Health of Animals Division and the essential research facilities, in the detection, isolation and control of animal diseases, through co-operation of provincial departments of agriculture and private veterinary practitioners. Its purpose is to detect, report and isolate diseases which might spread by an enemy bent on curtailing and destroying food of animal origin.

The Animal Health Emergency Organization will have a central committee at Ottawa comprising the following: Dr. T. Childs, Veterinary Director General, Chairman; Dr. C. A. Mitchell, Director, Animal Diseases Research Institute; Dr. O. Hall, Assistant Veterinary Director General; Dr. C. A. Rose, Chief Federal Meat Inspection Service; and Dr. J. M. Stuart, Chief Animal Contagious Diseases Control.

Committees in all provinces will be headed by the Federal Department district veterinarian. Membership will consist of Federal and provincial department of agriculture officers, veterinary officers, veterinary practitioners and other key people.

Sub-district committees, headed by the department veterinarians in charge, are being set up in the 100 sub-districts on the pattern of the provincial committees.

These committees will function to instruct persons concerned in the action and procedure necessary in detecting and reporting promptly the appearance of any abnormal condition connected with animal disease.

This will insure information reaching the central committee with the least possible delay so that control action may be taken.

POTATO DIGGER OPERATION

Much of the damage to potatoes at harvest time is caused by the digger. An improperly adjusted digger may bruise nearly one-third of the potatoes. Adjusting the rate of travel, depth of digger share, speed and agitation of the elevator chain and by increasing padding on the deflectors and rods of the machine will reduce damage to a minimum.

The rate of travel of the digger, says Allan Magee, Agricultural Engineer, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, should not exceed 1½ miles per hour. This reduces the bouncing of potatoes against the elevator or any stones that may have been picked up.

Obviously the depth of the blade should be below the potatoes but it should also be deep enough to provide a soil cushion 2-3 of the distance of the elevator to protect the potatoes from the elevator chain.

The speed of the elevator chain should not exceed 150 feet per minute.

Usually a tractor at half throttle in low gear will give this condition. The agitator sprockets should not be used unless soil separation is very difficult and they must be removed as soon as conditions permit.

Injury may be reduced further by padding all parts of the machine that come in contact with the potatoes. Rubber tubing on the chain and belt on deflectors is advisable.

For minimum injury a potato digger should be operated at a low speed, with a soil cushion on the elevator and sufficient padding to protect the potatoes.

AGRICULTURAL LIME

The use of agricultural lime is fundamental in maintaining the productivity of large areas of farm lands in Canada where the soils tend to become acid. Most of the soils in the Maritime Provinces, Newfoundland, and Quebec, some districts of Ontario, and the coastal regions of British Columbia are of this class. Without adequate and continuous liming, the productivity of such soils is relatively poor and farming becomes unprofitable.

There has been a rapid growth in the use of agricultural lime for direct application to the soil as in 1935 Canada used approximately 70,000 tons, and in 1950 about 650,000. Although the tonnage has increased nearly ten times during the last fifteen years, the amount used is not nearly sufficient to correct soil disorders and maintain neutral soils. G. W. Michael, Associate Chief, Fertilizers, Canada Department of Agriculture points out.

There is no reason for not applying agricultural lime where required as all of the above provinces have available suitable material to meet requirements. Also they all have a lime subsidy policy where assistance is given for the use of agricultural lime. Information on the lime subsidy policy and the need for lime for particular soils and crops may be obtained from the local agricultural office or by writing direct to the provincial Department of Agriculture.

MULCHING WITH CORN COBS

Mulching is to cover the soil with some protective material. A good mulch will conserve surface; protect plants from winter injury; prevent the soil surface from forming a hard, impervious top; and keep down weeds. Corn cobs have been found to meet all these requirements. Although originally intended for greenhouse use only, outdoor gardeners have found this material useful for their work also.

As a mulching material, corn cobs actually compare more than just favourably with standard materials. Corn cobs have been used to improve the structure of greenhouse soils. This is particularly so in the case of soils packed by frequent overhead watering. Just how this is done is not yet known but it is thought the sugar in the cobs (6 per cent) is leached into the soil where it stimulates micro-organism activity, which in turn granulates the soil.

For general greenhouse and garden use, says Dr. A. P. Chan, of the Horticulture Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, the corn cobs should be broken up into particles. It is not advisable to mulch to a depth exceeding three inches as this tends to encourage disease. After the material has been used as a mulch, it may be dug into the soil as it is an excellent source of organic matter.

When used to protect plants from winter injury, cobs may be mounded over the plants or a wire mesh cylinder may be set over the plants and filled with crushed corn cobs.

ANNUAL INSPECTION STALLIONS AND MARES

The annual inspection of stallions and mares under the Stallion Enrolment Policy, will take place from September 25th to October 5th. Anyone having stallions or mares to be inspected in the Counties in the Quinte District should contact their local Agricultural Representative at once, giving the name, registration number and breed of the stallion or mare, and the location of the farm where the horse (s) are located.

SAFETY FIRST WHEN SPRAYING

Some very wise precautions when using chemical weed-killers are suggested by the Ontario Advisory Committee on Herbicides.

Safety first is a good slogan when spraying, so protect the eyes and avoid inhaling chemicals or prolonged exposure of the chemicals to the skin. Take extra care when the herbicide is labelled poisonous. Go easy when using sodium chlorate as this chemical constitutes a serious fire hazard and may be poisonous to livestock.

2,4-D and related chemicals may seriously damage crops of sugar beets, tobacco, grapes, tomatoes, turnips, carrots, fruit trees and many others. If in doubt seek advice before using.

Spray 2,4-D only on resistant crops and spray only on calm days with low pressures to avoid drift of the chemical. Avoid the use of volatile esters in the vicinity of susceptible crops. Use a sprayer for applying 2,4-D only. This chemical is difficult to remove from a sprayer, and traces of it in other solutions may damage susceptible plants.

SIX ENGLISH JR. FARMERS TO VIEW C.N.E.

Six English and Welsh young farmers will view the showcase of Canadian agriculture as guests of this year's Canadian National Exhibition, Sam Foster, C.N.E. agriculture director announced.

The six junior farmers, members of the National Federation of Young Farmers, will tour Ontario from August 10th to September 10th as guests of Ontario's Young Farmers, and one of the highlights of the trip will be their visit to the C.N.E.

The party is made up of three girls and three boys. Sylvia Brewer, from Cornwall, works on her father's farm and has experience at dairy farming, tractor work and general farm work. As a versatile young lady, however, she has also acted as an auctioneer's assistant, has qualified as a "first class milker of cows" and has won several awards for cooking.

Patricia Ann Burrows, from Leicester, also works on her father's farm and is particularly interested in livestock. She has been a member of the Young Farmers' club for nine years.

Market gardening is Jean Dorothy Steves specialty. She comes from Shropshire and also works on her father's farm.

An authority on Jersey cattle will be Channel Islands' representative in the group. He's Leonard Picot who has been working on a farm for the past five years.

Brian Devonald Thomas, from Pembroke, is a graduate Mechanical Engineer but is now working on his father's farm. He's chiefly interested in beef production.

James Alan Jackson from Northumberland County, with 13 years in Club work was leader of the Club's Cowherd survey which placed first in the British National Competition. He is now in partnership with his father and is in charge of a pedigree Ayrshire herd which averaged over one thousand gallons per cow last year.

The group will be on hand for some of the Judging Competitions at the C.N.E. and will then spend the remainder of their Ontario visit with Junior Farmers in various sections of the province.

Crop Report

The total production of hay and grain crops in Ontario this year will be the best on record, according to the latest crop report issued by R. H. H. Symons, Director of the Statistics Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. Although a large portion of the hay was spoiled by rain, the quantity harvested shows an increase of 35% over last year. Providing weather conditions are favourable, recent reports from agricultural correspondents would indicate that the grain crop will be well over the 200,000,000 bushel mark of last year and possibly over the 1918 record of 213,356,000 bushels.

The production of oats is well above the yearly average, and is about 9% higher than last year. Fall wheat showed a decrease from last year, but is still far above the average yearly production.

The harvesting of most of the spring crops is well under way, and if weather conditions remain favourable, the average yield will be higher than in previous years for oats, barley and mixed grain.

Pastures have been excellent all summer, and are still above average. All live stock are in good condition, and milk flow is above normal, although the total production of milk is probably not any higher than last year, due to the reduction in herds in the past twelve months.

Late crops, such as dry beans, soybeans, roots and buckwheat are slightly below average but there is still time for further development, and the yield should be quite good, once again depending on the weather conditions.

An important item in this latest crop report is that the harvesting of flue-cured tobacco is well under way and present indications are that an all-time record will be established with may be easily baked. Place separate slices on broiling pan rack or a wire the production totalling 122,000,000 lbs.

Potato acreage is 30% lower than last year and this in turn is the lowest acreage on record. The corn crop is spotty, and prospects are for a below average yield. Other vegetables and fruit crops appear promising and local markets have liberal supplies.

Halibut grow to 800 or 700 pounds. But only if they're not caught young, of course.

Other top men coming to the CNE are Fern Ladouceur, of Leamington; Phill Gunn and Walt Woodward, from Lakeview; Listowel's Stan Fritz, who made a good showing at the Clearfield, Pennsylvania tournament recently, and Norm Black, Toronto.

On the Saturday, senior four man club teams will compete; each club may send as many men as they wish, but only the four best from each will compete. Teams from Stouffville, Kitchener, Galt and Lakeview and favored over Toronto clubs, Fairbank Cedarrvale, Fairmount Park, Riverdale, Beaches and such.

The best individuals will compete for cash prizes on Labor Day, and are expected to draw the biggest crowds.

Bert Campbell, Co-Ordinator of the events on the Dominion Horseshoe Pitchers Association, describes the last day's events as a "free-for-all. Regardless of club affiliation or position, any two can enter this Senior Doubles Jamboree contest, even, as he says, President Herb. Mann.

Dept. Lands and Forests Exhibit At Belleville Fair

Part of the Department of Lands and Forests exhibit at the Belleville Fair, told the story of the great variety of forest products manufactured in the Quinte District. Here are a few of them: Lumber, trim, flooring, vehicle parts, furniture, woodenware, shingles, boxes, crates, veneer, wood pulp, rollers and so on.

The casual visitor hardly notices the large number of mills and factories scattered through the district but in the aggregate they rank high in the economy of the area. Besides the many people employed in manufacturing plants, large numbers of men are engaged in woods operations, producing the sawlogs, pulpwood, and other raw material on which the industry depends. In so far as we protect what we've got, and practice sound management we can expect the jobs and production to continue or even increase.

Forestry Officials count on inventory cruises and working plan surveys now in progress to provide most of the information needed for establishing allowable annual cuts. Hardly less important in the local picture is the proper management of farm woodlots, careful marketing, and replanting waste areas.

Restocking The Woodlot

The woodlot without young trees, commonly called brush, will in time disappear. After the initial clearing of land for cultivation the process continued gradually due to pasturing, overcutting, and fire. Only too often this land is so poor that it does not even provide good pasture.

Restocking of a woodlot is easy or difficult depending on whether the present stand is in good condition or badly depleted. Where we have fully stocked woodlots it is fairly easy to adopt cutting practices that will provide natural regeneration of desirable species. By protecting this young growth from grazing and fire we can be sure it will mature to replace the old trees as they are cut.

In many so called woodlots we find the stand opened up by cutting. Here it is harder for young trees to get started, particularly the better species. Areas have been observed where 15 to 20 years after fencing were required to get the valuable species growing. First berry bushes and weeds started to grow when the stock was kept out then Cherry and Ironwood and finally Herd Maple, Basswood, Oak and Hickory.

Maintaining conditions in the wood-

Bass Transplanted To Understocked Lakes In District

"Bass Harvesting" operations were completed in the Denbigh area last week when the last of 2,600 small mouth Black Bass were transferred to understocked waters. By removing Bass from crowded lakes and streams and placing them in lakes where food is plentiful both areas will benefit, and production increase.

Local residents and visiting anglers were well pleased with the project according to Conservation Officer E. W. Ferguson.

Let's Have The News

Vacation season is here, and it brings a steady stream of visitors to the community, while scores of local residents are holidaying at other points from time to time.

Every one of these visitors is a news item of interest to at least some of our readers and we are very anxious to receive these items. Send them in, or bring them in, phone them in, or if you live in the country, let your district correspondent know. We do not wish to miss these "comings and goings", but if someone doesn't tell us, how are we to know? May we count on your co-operation?

Thirty Outstanding Acts — Comedy, Dancing, Impersonations Hollywood Stars

A musical treat is in store for the citizens of Stirling and surrounding district on Wednesday evening next, September 5th, when Belleville Y.M.C.A. Boys' Choir will present a Variety Show in Stirling Theatre. Their visit to Stirling is being sponsored by the Stirling Agricultural Society.

The choir has had outstanding success, playing to packed houses on different occasions, and appeared recently at the Belleville Exhibition. The boys have also been invited to sing on two days at the Canadian National Exhibition now on in Toronto.

Walter Bent is the director and producer of the show. He has had a wide experience, having directed boys' choirs at St. John, N.B., Reform School. Also during the war he was director with the Canadian Army Show, which toured many places on the continent. At present Mr. Bent is programme director of the Y.M.C.A. at Belleville, and the coach of the Belleville Redmen Senior Hockey Team.

The programme will include thirty outstanding acts, including comedy, singing, dancing, and impersonations of great Hollywood stars such as Spike Jones, Andrew Sisters, Al Jolson and many others. There will also be instrumental numbers and skits — a full two hours of entertainment.

The presentation was made by Sandra Wells.

Back To School Buying Gains Momentum

The business of going back to school means plenty of shopping. This week is a good time to start.

There are notebooks, text books, pencils, protractors, geometry sets, pens, erasers, dictionaries and a dozen and one other things to be provided for the student every fall.

Clothes are another problem that must be solved in the fall.

Too soon the fine warm weather will give way to nippy, blustery and rainy weather that calls for warm footwear, soft woolen sweaters, raincoats, wind-breakers, and warmer suits.

For Secondary School students the first few days of school are one mad whirl of buying text books. How much time and trouble they could save themselves by buying them beforehand.

The Stirling stationers have lists of books that will be required for every year in High School, while local stores are well stocked with wearing apparel.

Items of Interest St. Paul's-Carmel

(By Rev. A. E. Baker, U.E.C.)

Next Sunday, September 2nd, marks the opening of our Fall and Winter work. Rev. Gordon J. A. Whitehouse, B.A., B.D., Minister of the Seymour Pastoral Charge, will speak at St. Paul's and Carmel. Let us rally for our new season of work, and to welcome our visiting Minister.

Quarter Day will be observed on Sunday, September 9th. All parents and guardians with children to be presented to God for dedication in the Sacrament of Baptism are invited to bring them to this service. It would be appreciated if the Clerk of Session Mr. Harry Brown, Carmel, or Mr. Geo. Carlisle, Stirling, or the Minister, could be advised not later than Saturday, September 8th, of such intended dedications.

The Sacrament of The Lord's Supper will be observed and a Reception Service held for new members. It is expected that every church member will strive to be present at the Lord's Table. Open Communion is observed and all who love and serve the Lord will be welcome to this Memorial Sacrament whether members of the Church or not.

A third feature of this service will be the presentation and dedication of the Royal Choir Medallions to the following members of St. Paul's who received Honour standing at the Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise: Caroline Hansen, Mary Ellen Warren, Jean Ann Mayhew, Fairlie Warren, Jeanette Aythart, Sandra West, Wendy Warren, Sandra Stewart, Grace Heasman, Janet Ann Good, Rose Ann Vandervoort, Laura Jeffrey, Donna Carlisle, Marjorie Eva Ketcheson, Peter Heasman, Robert Bird, Allen Bird, Keith Hansen, Douglas Kane, Ross Carlisle, Ralph Carlisle, Charles Reynolds.

If there are any errors or omissions in this list it will be appreciated if they could be reported at once.

These Medallions will be worn until the next Festival at all Sunday services and special choir events. They remain the property of the choir and may be surrendered for irregular attendance, misconduct, disloyalty or through one ceasing to be a member of the Royal Choir. Misses Maureen Coulter, Marlene Carlisle, Joanne Heasman, and Janet Reynolds received Medallions Sunday, June 17th. Our order for Medallions has just been filled by the arrival of a fresh supply from England. All choir members should plan to participate in the 1952 Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise. This year Medallion awards have been made to all who obtained Honour Standing. Next year awards will be made to those receiving Honour standing with at least 75 marks and in 1953 our Centennial Year, First Class Honour Standing will be required, that is at least 80 marks to secure this badge of Honour.

Few if any rural churches have been better served with flowers than our Carmel Appointment. To Mrs. Lorne Brooks, Mrs. Milton Hagerman and Mrs. Arthur Pyear, go special thanks. At a recent Sunday service gladioli, pansies and sun flowers were tastefully arranged. The Harvest Home Festival at Carmel on September 16th promises to reflect the glory of Harvest Thanksgiving in this wholly rural community.

The Trustee Board has elected Walter T. Elliott, Treasurer of the Endowment Fund and authorized the deposit of all gifts to this fund, with the Victoria and Grey Trust Co. It is expected that the beautiful solid oak directory donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hanna will be dedicated on Remembrance Day, November 11th, at 11 a.m. All persons giving fifty dollars ($50.00) or more may have the name of a loved one carved in this directory which will be erected in the church entrance.

This money will never be spent. The interest which it earns however, which will not be less than three per cent, will be paid every six months to the Trustee Board for the operating expenses of the church. Under this plan the church will receive these gift deposits back in interest every 25 or 30 years.

Many will doubtless make provision in their wills for a gift to this fund which will pay interest to the church in perpetuity. It opens not only a proven and useful way to remember our beloved dead but also to honour the living.

The engraving of names in this directory is estimated to cost $5.00 per name.

Frances Jeffrey has been elected Secretary of the St. Paul's Trustee Board. Harold Wells is the General Treasurer and he will continue to receive gifts for hearing aid installations and a new floor in the Sunday School Hall and all general work of the Trustee Board.

The church pump has been turned over to Arthur Morrison in lieu of remuneration for special work done by him.

Choir Practices

Senior and Junior Choir practices will be resumed next Thursday, September 6th. The latter after school and the former at 7.30 p.m.

Last Sunday week a basket of reception blooms (gladioli) were thoughtfully placed in the church entrance by Mrs. Geo. Heasman.

Woodlands

Woodlands in Rawdon total 56%, and in Sidney 23%. Of the Rawdon areas 78% is second growth, 21% young growth and 1% potential.

The Ontario Horticultural Society organized an Annual School Forest Competition in 1945 in which prizes are offered to the school having the best plantation and knowledge of forestry in each forest district. Prizes are provided by the Ontario Conservation and Reformation Association and by J. E. Carter, of Guelph. The winners in district competitions are eligible for the Provincial Forestry Competition for which Mr. Carter furnishes $100 in prizes. Schools in the Moira Watershed were entered first in 1948 and the school at Exeter won first prize.

Population of Rawdon Township

The following are the census population figures for Rawdon Township from earliest records. 1836, 625; 1842, 1310; 1852, 3097; 1862, 3591; 1871, 3688; 1881, 3692; 1891, 3629; 1901, 3434; 1911, 3029; 1921, 2672; 1931, 2630; 1941, 2342. What will the census of 1951 reveal? These figures do not include incorporated villages like Stirling. Rawdon developed slowly until 1846.

The Moira River

From the headquarters to the mouth the Moira River is 91.6 miles in length. It has a drop of 854 feet. The tributaries of the Moira and their lengths are as follows: Black River, 36 miles; Skootamatta, 46 miles; Clare River, 25 miles; Park's Creek, 19 miles; Chrysol Creek, 8 miles. The old Indian name for the Moira was Sagamoskokan.

In 1836 the waters of the Moira turned wheels of 28 mills and in 1856 there were 35 water saw mills in the watershed.

From Hiva And Garden

The Parsonage family and August visitors have enjoyed gifts from the Apriary of Squire Frank Bailey, of Broadacres, and the kitchen gardens of Mrs. Oliver Stapley, Mr. Sidney Mason and Master Tommy Wells.

American Visitor

Rev. Wilfred E. Simpson, Minister of the 1st Presbyterian Church of Munroe, Mich., spoke to the morning congregation at St. Paul's on, "Choosing a King." His message was based on the fable of the trees. It was a challenge to accept the responsibility of leadership on the part of the capable. Unless the best led they would have to accept the tragic consequences of less than the best even "bramble" leadership.

Misses Leila and Donna McColl, of Wooler, sang Mendelssohn's lovely duet, "The Sabbath Morn," and Mr. Jack Bush, "Bless This House."

Hay Bay Pilgrims

Last Sunday afternoon many of our Carmel members motored to the old Hay Bay Church erected by United Empire Loyalists Methodists in 1792.

The old church was crowded and many were unable to obtain seats. A loud speaker carried the service to those unable to enter the building. The day was ideal but the church was without adequate ventilation due to the invasion a few hours before the service opened of a swarm of bees.

Among those present from Carmel were E. R. Carlisle, lay delegate to the Presbytery, Miss M. Carlisle, Squire and Mrs. Bailey and their grandchildren, Joseph and Mrs. Grills, Mrs. Louise Anderson, Arthur and Mrs. Pyear and Everett and Mrs. Grills.

The sympathy of St. Paul's congregation is extended to Mrs. Clifford Lansing and her loved ones bereaved by the death last Monday of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Ross.

Personal Planning By Bank of Montreal

"A good plan, it is practical and we find it easy to operate." This is what a shipping clerk and his wife, who are fighting the high cost of living with an annual salary of $3,100, told the Bank of Montreal about its new technique of money management, Personal Planning. And that is why the B of M is featuring Personal Planning for the second year at the 1951 Canadian National Exhibition, just opened in Toronto.

Several hundred freely volunteered testimonials have been received by the B of M since it introduced Personal Planning last year. A business executive, with an annual income of $7,000, wrote to say, "Mrs. H. and I have found this to be the most sensible approach to budgeting we have ever come across and have put it into practice successfully for the last few months." A grocery clerk, with an annual salary of $1,800, told the B of M, "My wife and I thought the plan might be too involved to try, but now it's working out fine."

What the average person likes about this unique money-management system, bank officials find, is that it helps him to save despite the high cost of living. And what keeps him personal planning is that, unlike ordinary budgeting, this system does not bore its users. It is practical, stimulating idea that can be readily tailored to the particular circumstances and desires of the individual.

At no time since its introduction has there been an indiscriminate hand-out of literature. Personal Planning was presented for the first time at last year's "Ex" when the B of M became the first bank ever to sponsor a C.N.E. booth. At least 250,000 persons stopped to study the displays. Well over 25,000 asked for further information and received Personal Planning booklets. And more than 5,000 sat down with the bank's personnel at the booth, to discuss their domestic financing and banking problems.

Surprising Demand For Literature

At the conclusion of the C.N.E., individual requests started coming in by mail and across 570 add B of M office counters throughout the country. Here again the bank observed its role that

Find Driver In Swamp

Eight provincial policemen Friday surrounded and captured Leo Ryan, 24, in a swamp near his home in Rawdon Township. They arrested him on a warrant charging dangerous driving and leaving the scene of an accident.

The warrant was issued after a panel truck careened off a County road near Ivanhoe on Wednesday of last week, and pinned Lance Beer, of Belleville, against a wire fence.

The Personal Planning booth has been set up, as it was last year, in the "Design for Living" section of the Coliseum building. The trained staff in attendance is ready to answer queries on banking and personal financing. And those persons not attending the Exhibition but interested in Personal Planning can obtain any information they wish on this subject from their neighborhood B of M branch.

DROPS DEAD AT PETERBOROUGH EXHIBITION

John Alfred Finlay, prominent Norwood man, collapsed and died almost immediately while watching the show from the grandstand at the Peterborough Exhibition Friday night. Mr. Finlay's death is the second one to occur at the Exhibition this year.

To All Owners of Threshing Machine Outfits

All threshing separators operating in or around barns should be properly grounded while in operation. Also arrange to have fire extinguishers on hand at all times.

Threshing separators travelling at high speed generate a certain amount of electricity and it takes only a flash spark from stone or metal to start a costly fire.

Master Herbie Demorest, of Stirling, spent three days with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacMullen while his parents were attending the CNE at Toronto.

The Eightieth Anniversary of Mount Pleasant United Church will be held at the usual time on Sunday, November 4th. According to tradition, the new Minister on Rawdon Circuit, Rev. R. R. Bonsteel will have charge of both services and deliver the special message, both morning and evening. It is hoped that a former beloved Pastor, Rev. F. G. Joblin, of Port Perry, will be able to attend and assist with the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reid, Ivanhoe, were recent guests of Mrs. Thomas Andrews.

During the past week nearly all the ladies have been visited by a group of girls canvassing for subscriptions to a popular ladies' magazine, published in Toronto. They must have all learned their story from their supervisor, as on comparing notes we find they all had practically the same line. The supervisor chauffeured the girls from their stop-over spot at Campbellford to their various starting points, picking them up for luncheon and at the end of the day. The girls were selling the idea of "a tour for girls" to England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, by way of subscriptions.

Mrs. Ross Hoard attended a cup and saucer shower on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Utman in honour of Miss Mary McDonnell, a bride-to-be.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

WOODLOT OF THE YEAR AWARD

Something new in the promotion of woodlot management is being tried this year in Hastings County. The Agricultural and Reforestation Committee of County Council are anxious to see many more private woodlots producing a maximum of valuable products. By selecting the outstanding woodlot in the County, they hope to illustrate how management pays off by increased revenue.

This competition is open to all resident land owners of Hastings County, who have 5 acres or more of woodland. The winner will receive $50.00 as well as the Award Certificate. In addition, there will be two merit awards for amounts of $30.00 and $20.00. Entries must be sent in to the Competition Secretary, Mr. W. E. Edwards, Box 299, Napanee, before September 30th. Judging will be carried out during October and the results will be announced at the December session of the Hastings County Council.

The Committee are anxious that a good number enter the contest this year, as it is then likely that it will become an annual feature.

Judging will be based on the management and marketing of the woodlot. Allowance will be made for local factors affecting the handling of the woodlot such as size, accessibility and markets available in the area.

Rules

1. The winner will receive $50.00 as well as the Award Certificate. In addition there will be two merit awards for amounts of $30.00 and $20.00.

2. The Agricultural and Reforestation Committee of Hastings County Council will be responsible for the organization and operation of the competition and will appoint the Judges and Secretary.

3. The competition is open to all resident land owners of Hastings County, except members of County Council or their employees.

4. Entries must reach the Secretary before September 30th, 1951.

5. Woodlots under 5 acres will not be eligible.

6. Judging will be carried out during October, and the owner will be required to supply any information needed by the Judges.

7. Results will be announced at the December session of the Hastings County Council.

8. If there is less than 10 entries, the competition will be cancelled for this year.

HEAVY LOSSES IN FRUIT CROP

The heavy rainfall has been an expensive enemy to the fruit crop, and it is reported that almost half the McIntosh apple crop will have to be used for cider, as the extreme wet weather has created a scab disease on the fruit.

It is also stated by cherry growers that sprays to reduce the onslaught of fungus and insects is washed off, almost as soon as it is sprayed on, so that much of the fruit will be left unprotected. Total damage to fruit crops due to rain is estimated at over fourteen million dollars.

BREEDING SHEEP IMPORTED INTO CHILI BY AIR

Ten Australian type Merino rams and ten Rambouillet Merino ewes valued at $10,000 have been brought into Chili by air from California. They were received at the airport by the chief of the veterinary service who found them in good condition after the three-day flight.

U.K. BANS CREAM PRODUCTION

As the result of bad weather and the subsequent drop in milk production, the U.K. Minister of Food have announced that the use of milk in the manufacture of fresh and sterilized cream is prohibited. Although there is, as yet no shortage of milk for the domestic liquid market, it is necessary with the approaching seasonal decline in milk output to safeguard supplies for use in infant food manufacture and in ration cheese production.

What Others Say!

MONEY FOR GRASS

(Peterborough Examiner)

Last week a farmer south of Peterborough brought a few head of cattle to the slaughterhouse in the city and went home with a cheque for $4,000. Actually, there were ten head in the lot, averaging about $400 each. This Spring a farmer north of the city bought a second farm, better than the one he, his parents and grandparents had labored for many decades to clear and improve. He bought it with one load of cattle he had raised last year, on his unimproved ranch land. Money for jam? Money for grass.

In view of such transactions it is astonishing that sons are still leaving the farm to get "easy" money in the factories.

THOSE HIGH PRICES

There is no one in Canada who is not concerned about the sky-high cost of living — no one who is not affected. We are chiefly interested not in the causes of inflation (we leave that to economists) but in its effects upon our own pocket books and standards of living.

Since the retailer is the man with whom we deal, we have a tendency these days to regard him as something of a pirate, out to fleece us. "Sam Smith," (our local merchant) we say, "Must be making a fortune at our expense. Look at the prices he charges!"

We forget that Sam is just as perturbed about those high prices as we are. When the wholesaler raises his prices to Sam, all he can do is pass along the increase. Often he absorbs as much of it as he can and still keep solvent.

The wholesaler, too, is in a similar spot since, by the time the goods reach him, the primary producer, the manufacturer and almost inevitably, the government, have had their share of the increase.

It is the old law of supply and demand at work. To get reduced prices in any commodity, either the supply must be increased or the demand decreased or both. At present in the case of many articles the supply is relatively small and the demand is great, not only here but all over the world.

During the last war the Canadian Government did a noteworthy job of controlling prices. The controls were not popular, effective though they were, and they cost the country plenty of money. Controls, subsidies and restrictions of one kind and another do not go over big with Canadians. After the war the government removed controls. The result was a rise in the cost of living in Canada that took our breath away.

Through its policy of high taxation and through too little effort to curb government expenditures, the federal government has not helped the situation. While prices were low during the war the public paid high taxes but could purchase necessities at relatively low cost due to subsidies and ceilings. Now both taxes and prices are high.

The whole mess is particularly tough on many Canadians — those on salaries which haven't increased in step with increased living costs and increased indirect taxes, the pensioners, the small business men whose turnover is up but whose profit is down.

What is to be done about it? We suggest that Canadians need to roll up their sleeves and produce more. They need to give a fair day's work for fair pay, to work longer hours and produce more goods. At the same time they need to decrease their purchase of goods and increase their savings. Temporarily Canada's high standard of living may suffer.

Canadians do not need to leave this cost-of-living business to their government. They can do something about it themselves once they realize that the law of supply and demand is at work.

WHO IS TO BLAME FOR CLOSED SHOPS?

When the labor unions were voluntary organizations that workers were free to join or not as they saw fit, they had both the legal and the moral right to refuse membership to anyone they didn't want.

In those days the employer had the right to hire whomever he liked to do the job he wanted done, and to let him go when he no longer needed him.

In those days also, the worker had the right to accept any job that was offered him and to remain in it as long as his services were acceptable to the employer who was paying him.

Today, in many Canadian industries, both these parties have lost those ancient rights, which have been usurped and are now being exercised by the union bosses, who neither do the work nor pay for it.

This change has been brought about by the adoption of the closed shop and other devices now being written into union agreements.

Wherever the closed shop is in effect a worker must belong to a certain union in order to hold a job. But when once he is accepted by the union and appointed to a job, he is considered to have a vested right in that job and no one but the union boss can remove him.

Governments have actually helped to bring about this situation by setting up boards to determine what unions may exercise these powers in different shops and industries. In effect, they have given certain unions a monopoly of employment in their respective fields, but they have left the unions free to exclude from their membership anyone they don't want.

The closed shop is an invasion of human rights and should never be allowed in a free country. It puts power into the hands of the unions to deprive citizens of the right to work at their trades. In a recent decision the Privy Council has decided that, under our present laws, the unions have the right to do that very thing.

It is time our governments and parliaments were beginning to realize that their duty is to protect the rights of the citizens, not to further the aggressions of powerful pressure groups. — The Rural Scene.

Missing Shoes

Theft of 23 pairs of shoes from their Frankford warehouse was reported on Tuesday by officials of the Bata Shoe Company at Batawa. The missing shoes, in sizes ranging from six to eight, were taken from their boxes and were valued at approximately $125. Provincial Police who investigated said there was no evidence of a break-in at the warehouse where the shoes were stored.

Resuscitator At Tweed

What we hope may never have to be used, an Oxygen Resuscitator, has been placed in the District Headquarters at Tweed by the Department of Lands and Forests.

While primarily for the Department's emergency needs it will be readily available for local use in the nearby area in case of drowning, electric shock, or other need where artificial respiration is indicated.

Local Forestry Officials, Doctors and certain other residents of the community are being given instruction in operating the equipment, so that a qualified operator is available at any time in case of emergency.

Placing at least one of these Resuscitators in each Region is part of the Department's Safety Policy. Department Resuscitators have been instrumental in saving at least three lives, it was reported, in one case where a young woman at Ipperwash Park had been submerged in the water for 15 minutes.

Advertising is sort of like a man journeying through life. Just like the man, advertising accomplishes little without persistence.
